PRESENTING SPONSOR

Compass TV is pleased to have Tammi Sulliman, chief political correspondent, as the host of Forefront. This weekly current affairs programme goes beyond the headlines and into the heart of the issues.

Tough but fair, Tammi asks the questions that matter, pushing past the rhetoric to uncover clarity and insight. No spin, no distractions – just pointed, dynamic discussion that informs and engages, meaningfully.

We're inviting one client to be the presenting sponsor of the upcoming autumn series of the show, broadcast across our TV and digital platforms.
